

The inscription was discovered by Turks architects recently during the renovation of the building. It is located in the western gate of the Temple and clearly indicates the exact date of construction of the Church dedicated to the Entrance of Theotokos into the Temple.